Codebreakers – The Forgotten Heros

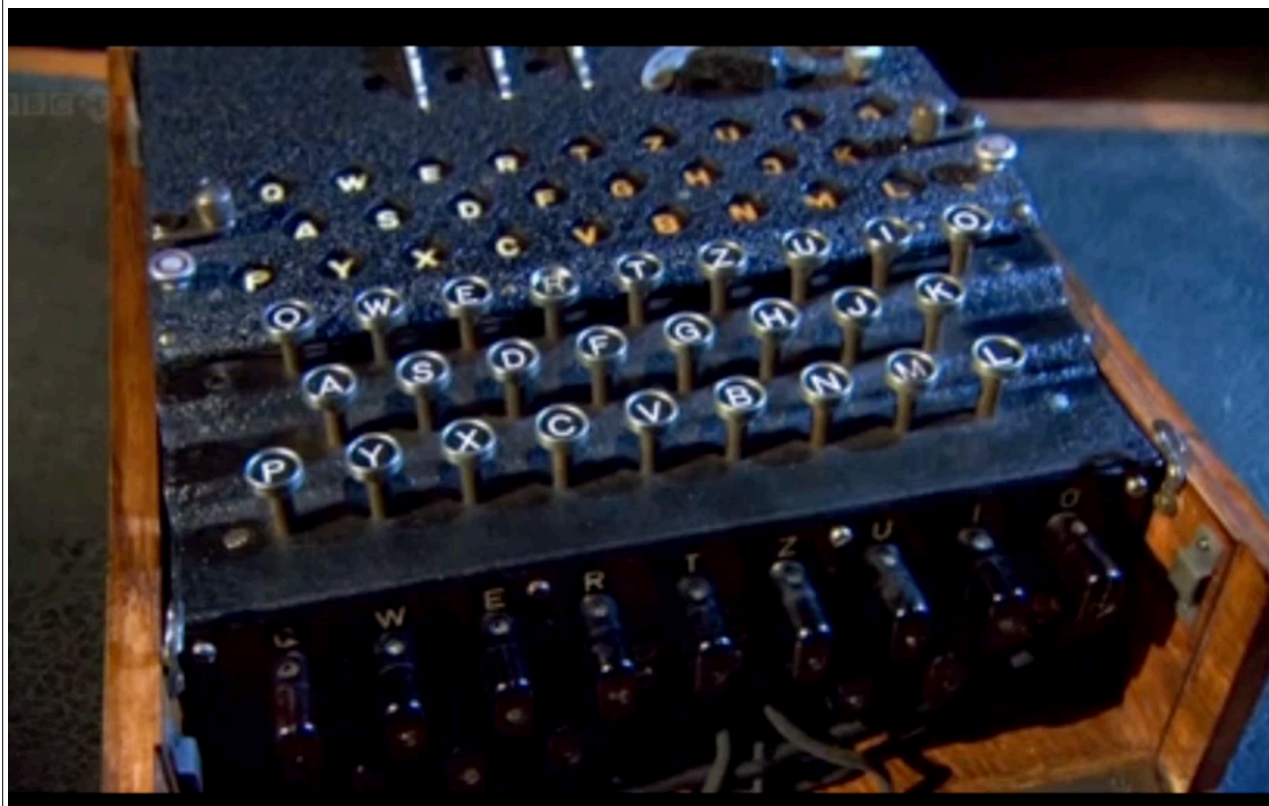

- We watched this new BBC documentary video in class
- Documents from Britain's Military Intelligence (MI) unit have been de-classified recently, and reveal some previously unknown and astonishing facts about computing and codebreaking in World War 2.
- This video potentially changes the history of computing.
- To see it, please search Youtube with these terms:
- BBC: Codebreakers Bletchley Parks Forgotten Heros
- The next slides summarize some key scenes from the documentary we watched in lecture 2. We finished watching the video in lecture 3.
